

Sapandeep Singh Maini-Thompson

020 7353 5324

Sapan joined 2 Hare Court as a pupil barrister in March 2021. Under the supervision of Peter Lownds and Leon Kazakos QC, he is observing and assisting in matters across the range of Chambers' practice areas.

Prior to coming to the Bar, Sapan worked for the Cleaners and Allied Independent Workers Union (CAIWU), representing claimants in company hearings and the Employment Tribunal in unfair dismissal, unpaid wages, discrimination and harassment cases. He also worked as a County Court advocate and as a legal researcher for the Uyghur Tribunal. He writes for the UK Human Rights Blog, the Oxford Human Rights Hub and the Justice Gap.

Sapan's work on the human rights compliance of terrorism law was cited by the Independent Reviewer for Terrorism Legislation in his 2021 report on the operation of the Terrorism Acts.
